Special Gifts Help the Most Vulnerable

42

In addition to the many grants recommended by our generous fund holders, JCF's Board of Trustees has awarded nearly $10 million since 1999 from the JCF Special Gifts Fund, an institutional endowment, to dozens of organizations in the New York Jewish community. Learn more about our most recent grants below.

The JCF Special Gifts Fund Provides $240,000 for Day Camp Scholarships

In the wake of Hurricane Sandy, JCF provided $240,000 in day camp scholarships to children of families affected by the storm. One mother whose family lost their home described camp as "the only normalcy left in my children's lives."

JCF Grants $100,000 to UJA's Community Initiative for Holocaust Survivors

In New York, the largest community of Holocaust survivors in the United States, half of survivors are living in poverty. JCF's Special Gifts Fund granted $100,000 to the Community Initiative for Holocaust Survivors, an initiative of UJA-Federation of New York, to meet the needs of this vulnerable population.

JCF Grants $100,000 to Renovate a Multi-purpose Room at the YM-YWHA of Washington Heights and Inwood

More than 6,000 people use the Y's auditorium each year. It is a highly-valued resource for the entire Washington Heights and Inwood community, as it is accessible to all. Thanks to JCF, the Y will install a professional-grade, hi-tech sound system to significantly improve the acoustics in the room. This is particularly important for the seniors who have a difficult time hearing musical entertainment and speakers.
